NEW ROSES for 1933

MARY HART (GEO. B. HART)

A RED SPORT OF TALISMAN

The color is between spectrum red and carmine, according to Ridgeway's color chart (the official chart of the Patent Office). This bright, clear, velvety red is just what the market has been looking for. This Rose will not turn blue under any condition, and we believe it to be the best keeping Red Rose in existence. Unlike most Red Roses it does not wilt or dry, but will open perfectly. It does not become unsightly through the process of ageing. Its petals do not fall even after it is too old to be kept longer, and the bright color is retained for some time after it is full blown.

It is a large, well formed, full center Rose with 35 to 40 petals, with practically no deformed buds. It is, at least, equal to Talisman in production, with stronger and heavier stems. We consider it a much stronger grower than its parent.

The Rose is patented and will be disseminated under limited patent restrictions, at the following prices:

YELLOW JOANNA HILL

(WHITE BROS.)

A sport of Joanna Hill. Characterized by its uniform, clean, yellow color, almost identical with a perfect colored Pernet. The bud is longer than Joanna Hill and very pointed. A perfectly formed bud with 25 to 28 petals opening perfectly, with no deformed flowers. As a keeper and shipper it is exceptionally fine.

It produces a long, straight, stiff stem without pinching and possesses all the good growing qualities of its parent, and is just as prolific with better foliage.

This Rose has been granted a patent and will be disseminated under patent restrictions, at the following prices:

NEW CARNATIONS

SATELLITE

The color is a rich, bright scarlet, a shade between Spectrum and Radiolite. It is a splendid keeper. It is a clean, strong grower and makes fine plants in the field. The stem is long and strong and it is a very free bloomer in Winter months. The size of the flower is like a good Radiolite with a somewhat better form. The calyx never splits, hence there are practically no culls. Rooted cuttings, $15.00 per 100, $125.00 per 1000.

SCARLET MONARCH

A Seedling of 1926. It is a cross of Bernice and Spectrum. Scarlet Monarch has been thoroughly tested for five years. The large, full flowers do not split, and are held erect on strong, heavy stems. Every break is a flowering shoot. Every cutting will root. It is an excellent shipper and keeper. It makes a fine plant in the field, and is a very strong grower inside. A fast producer, it gives a wonderful crop at Christmas. Rooted cuttings, $15.00 per 100, $125.00 per 1000.

LENORA

Lenora is white, with pink penciling which blends well with other colors. It blooms freely and yields a quality that compares with the leading commercial varieties. Its keeping qualities are excellent and it does not come sleepy in warm weather. Rooted cuttings, $15.00 per 100, $125.00 per 1000.

VIVIAN

Habit—A healthy, clean grower, roots easily.

Color—One or two shades deeper than C. W. Ward. Bright and illuminating; does not bleach.

Size—Three to three and one-half inches of good form. Holding its size wonderfully; early and late in the season.

Stem—Medium to long as season advances. Blooms heavily in Midwinter. "Vivian" does best in night temperature 48 deg. Rooted cuttings, $12.00 per 100, $100.00 per 1000.
